THE LIONS TALE

WE SERVE

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Lions,
Summer flew by, and now we get to enjoy the beauty of fall. For those who love the crisp days and bright colors—this is your time! And for us summer fans... only nine more months to go. Thank you for keeping my daughter, Jadyn, in your thoughts and prayers. While we still don't have answers, your support means so much to us. It's been wonderful hearing about the fun on the Aquastar Boat ride—I can't wait to see the pictures! A big thank-you to Lion Doug for organizing, and to all who joined in. If you couldn't make it, no worries—we hope to plan additional social events throughout the year. Have an idea? Share it with Lion Doug!

A MESSAGE FROM THE CLUB PRESIDENT (continued)

For those looking to get involved in our community, KidSight is always in need of helping hands. Recent screenings at Beachnau in Ravenna and Bunker reached 662 students, with 72 referred for further care. Huge thanks to Lion Elvie from Fruitport Lions for leading the effort and to all who volunteered—you made a real impact. It was also a joy to connect with Lions from Ravenna, Muskegon, Wyoming, Fruitport, and Alto during this work. Together, we make a difference—one student, one cause at a time. 🦁

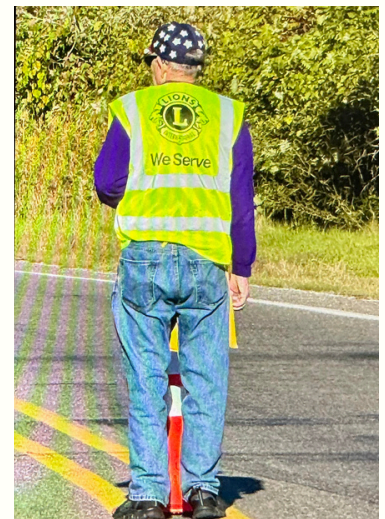

I'm grateful to serve alongside such dedicated Lions !!

In service and friendship,
Lion Jacquelyn

SPOTLIGHT ON MEMBERS JIM & JAN IRWIN

Jim and Jan Irwin are both very involved Lions who would rather not be in the spotlight. They have raised 3 sons. Jim is our current treasurer and chair of Candy days. He also served as president of our club from 2022-23. Jan has helped chair or co-chair several events in our club including the Dave Sheehy Memorial Chili and Soup cook off. Their passion for Lions began with service in the Holton-Twin Lake Lions club. This month, I have included a wedding photo of the couple on the following page. They cordially invite you to a luncheon in honor of their 50th Wedding Anniversary. Please RSVP.

Congrats, Jim & Jan!
