THE LIONS TALE

WE SERVE

FROM THE DESK OF THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Lions,

It's officially fall! Bruce (my husband) was just saying how surprised he is that some of the trees are already showing their colors and some of them are losing or have lost all of their leaves.

Here's a poem by Robert Louis Stevenson that I found about fall:

Autumn Fires

In the other gardens
And all up the vale,
From the autumn bonfires
See the smoke trail!
Pleasant summer over
And all the summer flowers,
The red fire blazes,
The grey smoke towers.
Sing a song of seasons!
Something bright in all!
Flowers in the summer,
Fires in the fall!

In closing, even though the seasons are changing, I hope you are still "fired up" about Lions Club.
